

St Mary's Church, Gamlingay A Guide for Young Explorers!

Welcome to The Church of St Mary the Virgin, Gamlingay which is the oldest building in the village. Building work started on the present church around 1200.

It has been altered, repaired and added to many times during its long history. We hope you enjoy exploring this beautiful and ancient building using this guide.

Acknowledgements

Material for this guide was obtained from Philip M. Gorton's publication 'The Church of St. Mary the Virgin', the heritage boards designed by James Brown and the children's quiz produced by Roderick Starksfield.

Supported by

The National Lottery[®]

through the Heritage Lottery Fund

